“True education means more than the pursual of a certain course of study. It means more than a preparation for the life that now is. It has to do with the whole being, and with the whole period of existence possible to man. It is the harmonious development of the physical, the mental, and the spiritual powers.”

Education p. 13

Foreword

This annual is a pictorial essay portraying the life of a typical Oakwood College Student. Throughout the decades, hundreds of men and women have entered Oakwood College, have sat at the feet of Christian teachers, and have departed to make their contributions.

Today, many more are passing through the sacred halls of Oakwood and entering the world to leave their footprints there. These, however, are leaving Oakwood College with newer and broader ideas. So it is that the 1967 ACORN carries as its theme: "ENTER TO LEARN . . . DEPART TO SERVE."

As you turn the pages of this 1967 annual, we hope that you may glimpse the effect of a Christian education upon the individual, and that you will remember, through the years, that Oakwood College is dedicated to the work of preparing young men and women for service in this world, and in the world to come.

Editor

Robert L. Reynolds, B.S., M.S., Professor Emeritus of Biology, holds a dear spot in the heart of many an Oakwoodite who has sat under his instruction. Since 1917 he has been dedicated to the cause of guiding young men and women into a life of service.

For the last 21 years, his life has been interwoven with that of Seventh-day Adventist youth. "Fess" Reynolds has the unique distinction of having taught under the supervision of George Washington Carver in the department of Agriculture at Tuskegee Institute. As result of his wide experience, he has been very successful in leading many to a fuller life.

Dedic a

L. Henrietta Emanuel, B.A., M.A., Professor Emeritus of English has given forty-nine years of her life to the cause of education. Forty-eight of the forty-nine years have been dedicated to the fostering of Christian Education.

Miss Emanuel, a well-read professor, holds life credentials from the General Conference of Seventh-day Adventists in five subjects namely: Bible, Biology, English, History and Spanish.

For eighteen years she has been instrumental in aiding Oakwood Students to find their places in the world.

FRANK W. HALE JR. B.A., M.A., Ph.D., President

Dear Oakwoodites:

I congratulate you for having selected Oakwood College as the institution of your choice in higher education. You have come in an era of great expectations in the face of historic dilemmas. There is open before you an unparalleled opportunity to build new and firmer foundations under your feet. You stand at the gateway of an age of expansion, of space advancement, of ecumenism, of a "new morality," of the flowering of modern imagination, and an unprecedented explosion of new knowledge and technologies.

We are proud that you have recognized the great advantage that Oakwood College has to offer you. I have no apologies to make to anyone that we do things in a big way. We have a set of values that distinguishes us from being just another institution of higher learning. We have a solidarity and a unity of spirit and purpose that have helped us to accomplish many things during the year.

From our strengths have come great actions. We have great visions today, and we can move forward to even greater achievements tomorrow.

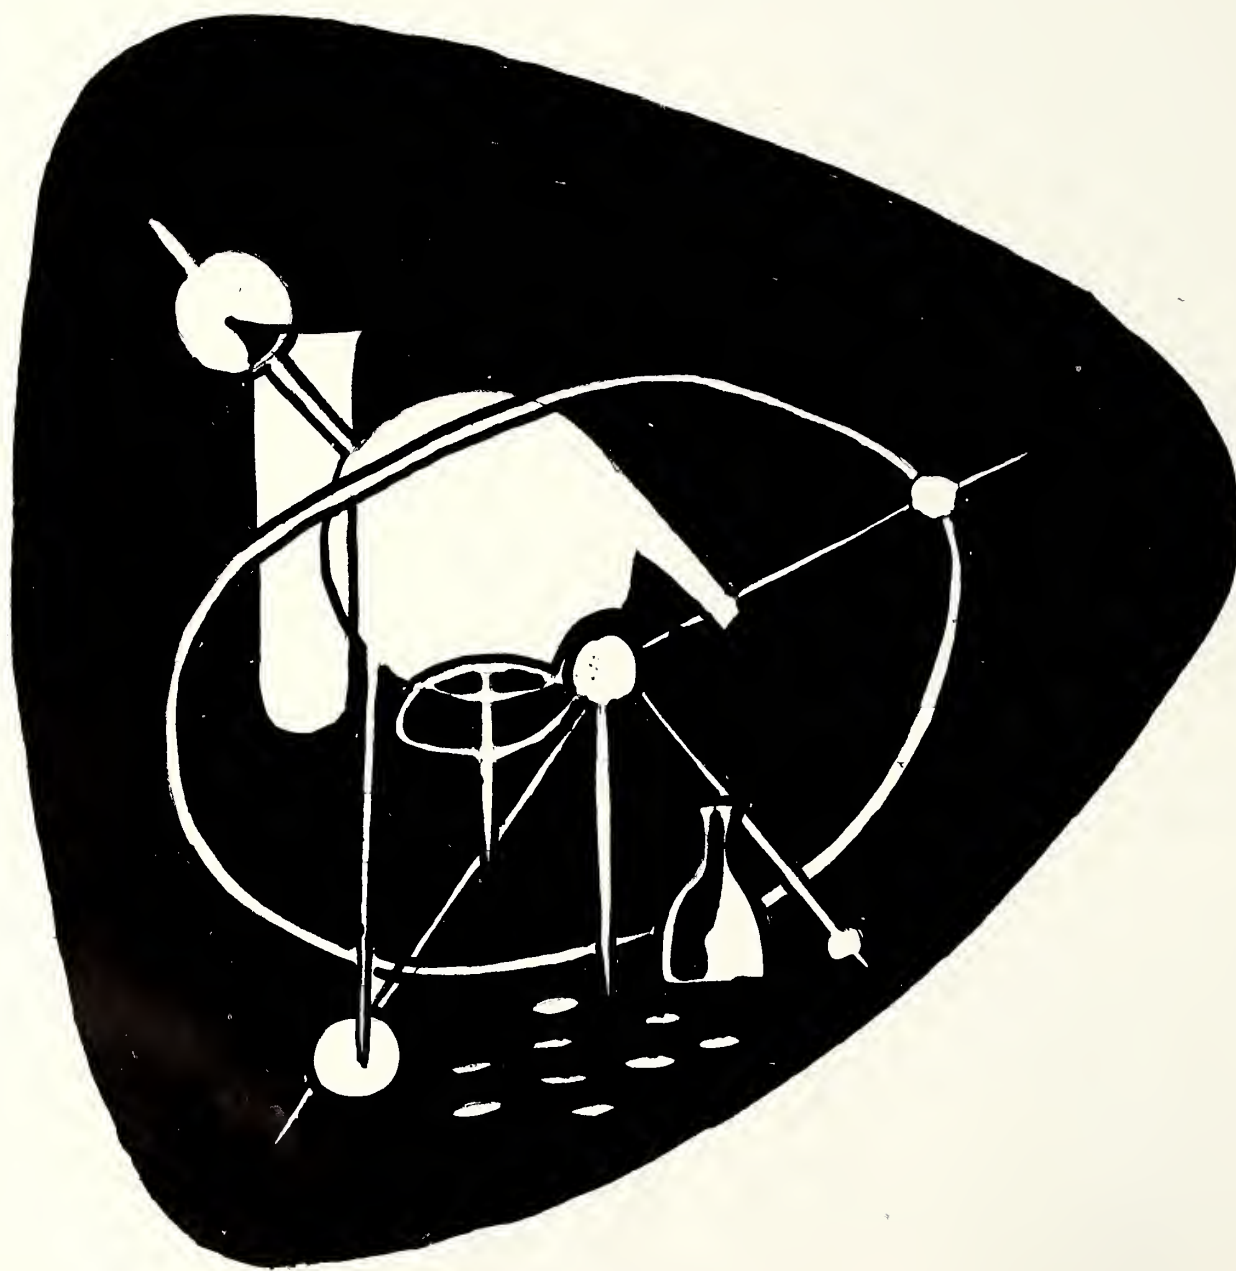

I challenge you to show the world that Oakwood College makes men and women of boys and girls; that it provides remarkably clear insights for the development of the human spirit; that it attempts to establish religious convictions that are exhibited in outward patterns of behavior; that it encompasses an environment that is a potent force in spiritual, academic, and social development; and that it considers experience - actual and vicarious - a most important aspect of total development.

You are Oakwood's greatest ambassadors. Let your influence be positive and dramatic, for you are our most important investment.

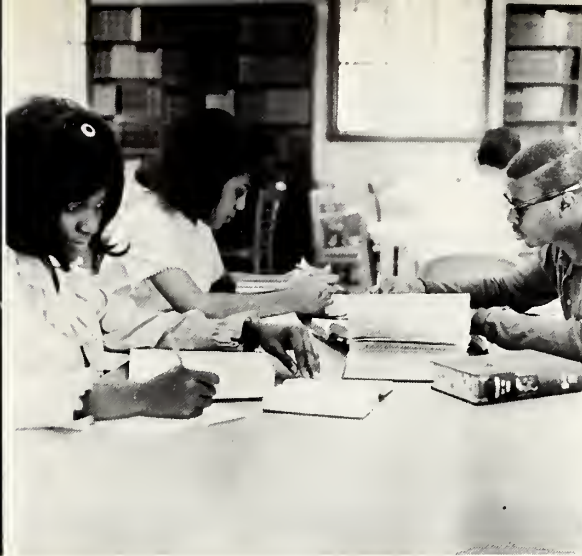

Yours for Oakwood College,

Frank W. Hale, Jr. - President

Campus Life

Interesting is the life of a student at "The Oaks". Although the academic program requires many hours of study, the typical Oakwood student finds time for work, play, and relaxation.

Registration is a taxing procedure.

It's a pleasure to go ingathering. Isn't it, Christine?

It's getting so, they don't care who they hire.

There's always a strong attraction for the opposite sex.

Skippy gets a lesson on mixing dough.

Wow!....and Sampson blew.

It couldn't be from Daddy.

Furman must be going to Dr. Dykes' class.

Smile Tam, it isn't that bad.

Alex, is probably getting a slice for himself.

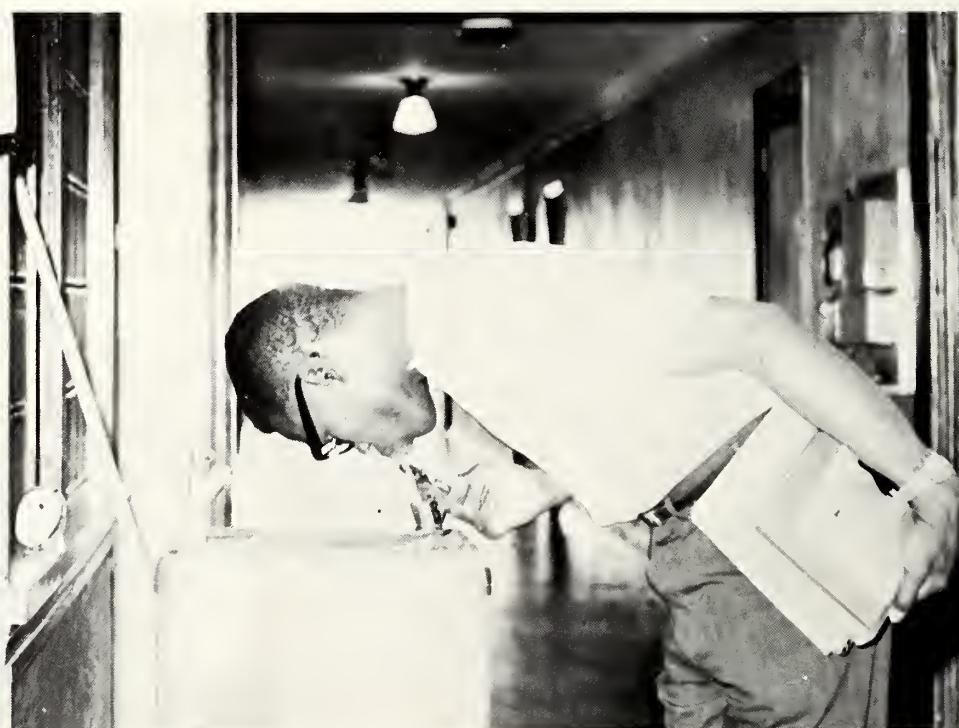

Wishful thinking isn't good enough, Corky!

This is the time of day when our girls lose their beauty.

A guy is entitled to a drink before going to fail.

Don't Kidd me, that's got to be a Mapp.

I betcha Al wishes he was young again.

Gee! ... and I thought I cleaned my room.

They take their work seriously.

After waiting a half hour for Ruth, Pierre is still happy to see her.

"Snack time is anytime" --says Geraldine.

Last year's dress for this year's occasion!

Our favorite pastime is studying in the library.

Some fellows take studying to the extreme.

Work is a new experience.

Dean Davis comes by to tell Jessie goodnight.

Gossiping has gotten sort of boring for Connie.

"I can get pretty hungry at times".

Morris is always a nonchalant observer.

It must be ten to eleven!

"I wonder if we've changed from sitting ducks to sitting humans?"

First he tries to get away without paying...

Forget it, Roger. She's got you. She wins all the way.

...then he's finally persuaded it's best if he did.

One is Sitting Bull, one is Black Sambo, and the other two are just amazed.

Thank you for the advice, Dean Davis.

John is trying to make a great big move.

Actually, the problem with this lad is that he is confused.

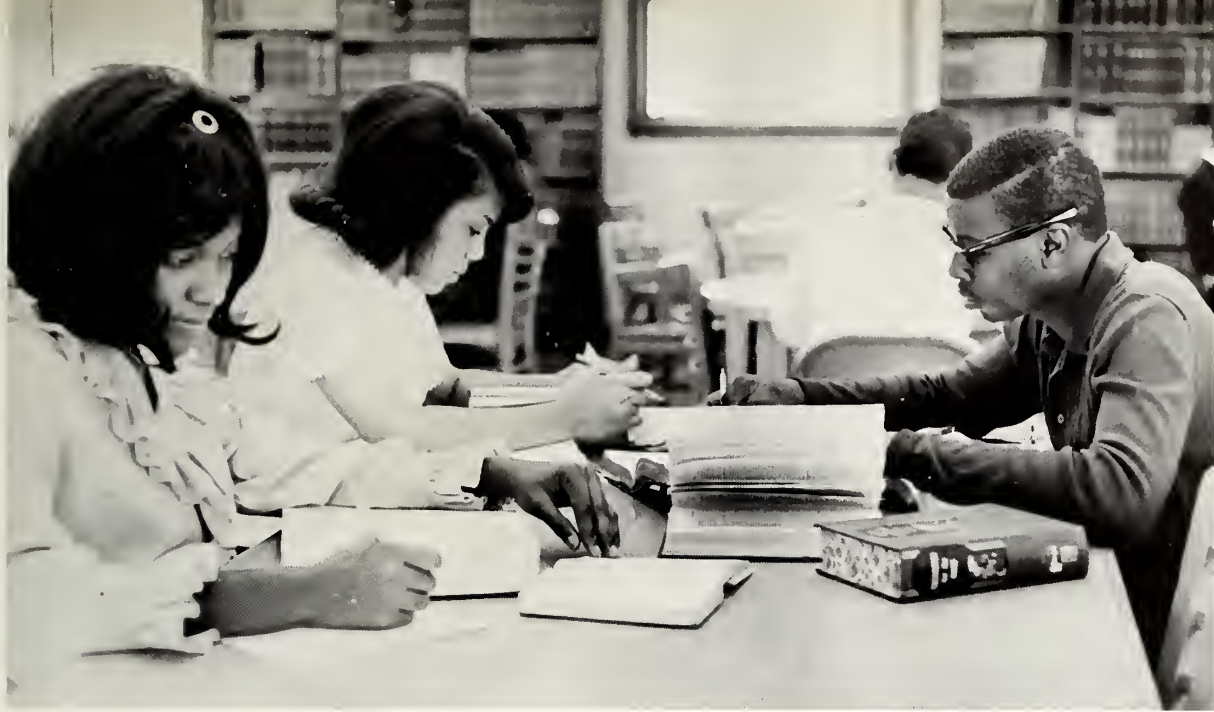

Concentration is the secret here.

Now I lay me down to sleep, I pray . . .

There's one thing missing in this picture. ---Earnestine

Someone put the wrong sign in front of him.

Mary had a little lamb, his fleece was white as snow; and everywhere that Mary went, Wendy was sure to go.

Work never hurt anybody but these guys.

String along with Charlie Mitch.

No matter where he goes...

He gets the best treatment.

Rush, rush, rush, no time for "Batman."

Dear Mom, Please send me a straightening comb, and some rollers...

I was raised on Log Cabin syrup. Why don't you try it?

"Whatsoever thy hands findeth to do, do it with all thy might"

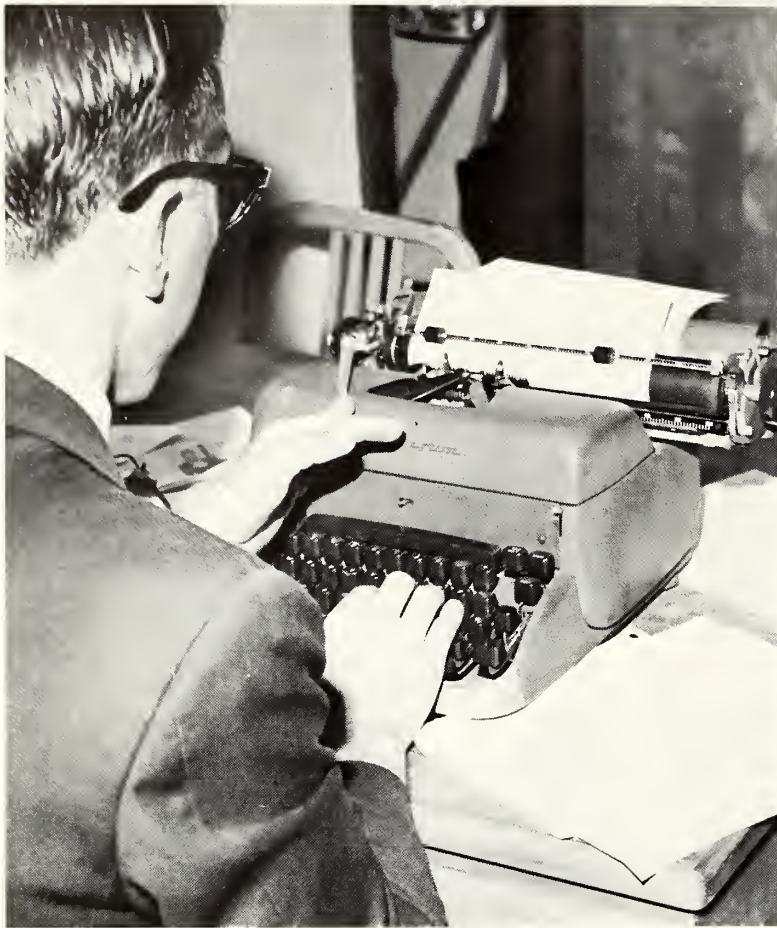

"He that is faithful in that which is least..."

This is a Prime sabbath school class.

He's only practicing his typing.

She's another member of the "out crowd"

I've something to tell you; promise you won't tell?-The one in the middle is the cutest.

That is exactly how you look on the inside.

I think I'll play me a lullaby.

For three years Victor has been doing this, and for three years he's been messing up.

No matter where you are, make yourself feel at home.

Just a small part of Oakwood's finery.

An advantage of having reverse week.

Quiet Hour is meditation hour for "Soup".

"Believe me, if all those endearing young charms"...

Norman must have been eating again. His belt and tie are loosed.

Bill Niles, a student, gives the physics class a lesson on the camera.

Nana Harris is either fascinated by Letrish's accuracy or by her many mistakes.

Kenneth Vaz is so much in love, he 'ties' up the phone even on Friday nights.

The bridge takes shape in the U. S. M. park.

Some folk major in eating. . . . .

Some in studying,

. . .and others in socializing

Don't cry Judy, the pony has already been broken in.

What's wrong, Pearl? Is the saddle too hard?

Ex-students of Pine Forge Institute form their traditional line...

.....and then run for life as the bus leaves for home at the conclusion of College Days.

Hey, Donald, the box reads please save, aren't you going to save it?

It's hot out here.

Linda gives Doug a lesson in Jacks.

Administration

Intelligence, imagination and authority are some of the indispensable qualities of an administration which is serving an ever expanding college like Oakwood College. Care must be taken that the development meet the aims and principles of Christian Education, yet immediate needs such as housing and instructional facilities must not be allowed to put into oblivion, the need for an up-to-date curriculum, qualified teachers, and the educational opportunities of today. Such is the responsibility that rests upon the shoulders of our administration, who with their foresight and diligent planning, endeavor to give us an adequate education.

Organizations

Going to College means more than obtaining book knowledge. It entails the preparation for the responsibilities of a complex world.

Through the seventy decades of Oakwood's history, men and women have been emerging, not as the immature novices that entered, but as mature, well-rounded individuals with ability enough to be good followers, and initiative enough to be dynamic leaders. It is through the many organizations to which the student is exposed at Oakwood that he develops a lasting sense of responsibility.

WILLIAM FRAZIER, President of USM.

As we reminisce over the past school year, we are reminded of many happenings--some favorable, others not so favorable. However, as maturing men and women, we must realize that prosperity and adversity make up life, and that it is only as we are able to successfully cope with our daily confrontations that we find the essence of life.

We leave "The Oaks", but their memories linger still; and through memory's vision we see them towering ever heavenward. May we, like the oaks, tower above all others in service; for it is in serving that we live 'more abundantly'.

LATE ROBERT L. REYNOLDS

In Memoriam

Robert L. Reynolds, born February 4, 1895, in Columbus, Ohio, calmly slept away March 10, 1967, in Riverside Sanitarium & Hospital in Nashville, Tennessee, after a prolonged illness.

He came to Oakwood College in the Division of Natural Science where his ambition and interest stirred many youthful minds to achieve and grow. From this Division he was invited to take the first principalship of Oakwood College Academy which he held for one year 1945-1946 before accepting principalship at Baltimore S. D. A. Academy, Baltimore, Md. Never a slacker nor one to shirk duty, he accepted the principalship of Pine Forge Institute, Pine Forge, Pa. It was his privilege to serve as the second principal of this institution.

He served Oakwood College from 1951 till his death. Though his health began to fail, he continued teaching even through a part of this academic year.

HE SLEEPS, BUT HIS WORKS LIVE AFTER HIM.

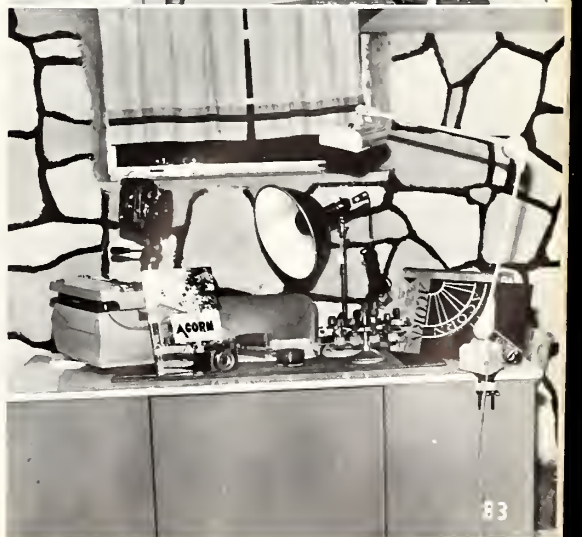

EACH YEAR, TEAMWORK AND CO-OPERATION ARE EXHIBITED AS THE OAKWOODITES PARTICIPATE IN FOOTBALL, PING PONG, BASEBALL, SHUFFLE-BOARD, SKATING, ETC. THESE GAMES PROVIDE AN OPPORTUNITY FOR THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE "PHYSICAL POWERS".

Football

The sports program at Oakwood opens each year with football. The teams in the league exhibit a high degree of enthusiasm that does much to bring out the crowds.

WHO'S WHO

Who's Who Among Students In American Universities And Colleges

For a student to be recognized by the organization, Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges, he must first be recommended by the University or College he attends, and accepted by the organization. Selection of nominees is done by the faculty. Each department recommends names. In selecting the students, scholarship, leadership, cooperation in educational and extra-curricular activities, citizenship, and promise of future usefulness are considered.

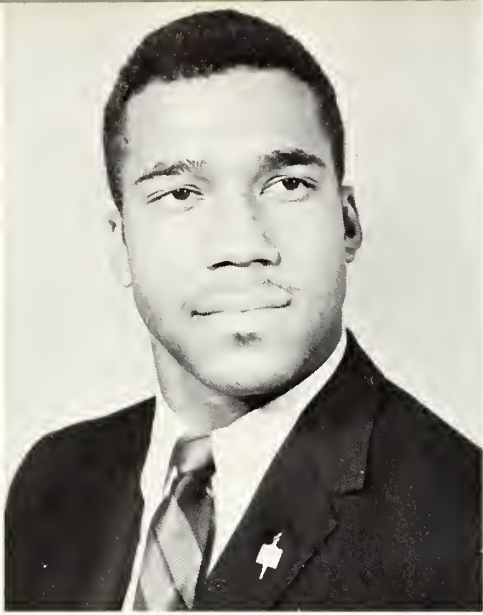

Students who are recognized by Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges can receive aid, if requested, in employment placements, and other recommendations.

This has been the first year Oakwood has participated in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

IN THE SHADOWS OF THE OAKS

Alma Mater

Our dear Oakwood within whose vales
Thy standards will not fail;
Our hearts are filled with wondrous cheer
When thoughts of thee draw near.
We love thy pines, thy elms, thy oaks,
And campus always green.
Thy many flowers and distant mounts,
Form one impressive scene.

From states afar and isles of sea
Thy students come to thee,
And fain do linger in thy halls
Enlightened truthfully.
From nature's scenes they ever learn
And study from thy soil;
Till many more thy works discern
We'll pray for thee and toil.

As happy birds come in the spring
And sing not for their pay,
Rich, natural melodies they bring,
Cheering throughout the day.
We too will serve thee faithfully
In all we do and say.
We hope in God, we trust in thee;
True and loyal we'll be.

Chorus:
To thee, our dear Oakwood,
To thee we shall ever sing.
For decades thou hast stood;
Thy name should ever ring.
Here we've spent our happy days,
So we love to sing thy praise,
And wherever we may be
We'll always be true to thee,
Our worthy dear old O. C.

SOUTHERN PUBLISHING ASSOCIATION

Congratulates the Graduates

... and especially to be congratulated are the graduates who reached this milestone by meeting their financial obligations the scholarship way.

Everywhere progressive people are adding these beautiful volumes to their libraries. Not only are these volumes beautiful, but they contain messages of inspiration, enlightenment, and practical living. Each volume serves a definite purpose in every home. Help others obtain these books. Help yourself by earning a scholarship to care for your financial obligations.

What a heavenly scene!
I was here, and waiting to be kissed and sweet sixteen, that honor & oh how I loved
The guys did the kisses & the guys on the guys and squashed too, oh joy!
Within a year and a day all that social and the softest skin, the guys just the kind of a girl all that looks for all the guys
And never has to find the way
I liked my clothes and girl that I would get I was their favorite to (California) I was their Washington D.C. I was their to I was the girl who said the guys
the guys
